Tiraki embodies adventure and exploration. Our story is intertwined with the pioneering spirit of Marlborough, where our families were among the earliest European settlers in the region. Longfield Farm, established by our ancestors in 1870, serves as the heart of our legacy. Over six generations spanning 150 years, the 260-hectare property has evolved while upholding our unwavering commitment to excellence and stewardship of the land. Together, we meticulously nurture grapes that our family winemaker masterfully crafts into distinctive, world-class wines. Nestled in the Southern Valleys sub-region of Marlborough, Tiraki carefully selects grapes from premium blocks at Longfield Farm.

Our journey started in 2005 with a singular vision to produce the best wines in the Marlborough region. Named after the majestic Catalina sea planes that provided vital transport across the vast Marlborough Sounds in WWII, Catalina Sounds produces wines that are distinct and true to their vineyard sites in the Southern Valleys. We have evolved from our humble origins to become the number one selling premium New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc in New Zealand & Australia. From our home vineyard, Sound of White in the Waihopai Valley, we produce a unique Single Vineyard range of wines, each small batch and unique reflections of our terroir.

From the ruggedly beautiful terroir of Central Otago in New Zealand, Nanny Goat produces fruit forward wines with powerful firmly structured palates. Founded in 2004 and named after the nimble and sure-footed wild goats of the region, we adapt and thrive in this often extreme climate. Winemaker Alan Peters-Oswald believes that it is his job to make wines that interpret the beauty, the unique place of origin, the individual sites from which the fruit is sourced, and the quality of the fruit used. He makes wines that speak for themselves and are not veiled by excessive winemaking intervention. In pursuit of magic.

Te Kano in the Māori language means the seed, 100% owned by the Lloyd family, they offer a full estate operation from vineyard to glass. There are 4 significant vineyard sites: three in Central Otago, including one on the famed Felton Road, and one in Waitaki, Otago.

The brand focuses on quality, purity, concentration, and depth, offering some of the most extensive Chardonnay and Pinot Noir plantings in the region. At the heart of the philosophy is the wish to leave the land better than they found it. Farming with a focus on sustainability and organic practices, with the determination to leave the land better than they found it, a legacy.

Ant Moore wines are free spirited. As a winemaker, Ant is an experimenter, a creative oenologist who sees – and does – things differently. From the introduction of wild ferments to the elimination of fining and barrel aging his Sauvignon Blanc, there is care and consideration in every ant moore wine that is usually reserved for wines well above their price point. Ant Moore wines are born in the beautiful valleys of Marlborough in New Zealand's South Island. We own and lease 195 ha of vineyards across the region. The Awatere, Waihopai, and Wairau Valley soils and stones create unique vines that are distinctive to the Marlborough region.
